

6516206272.txt

Please spend your time on monitoring 'smut jocks' and other improper use of the public licenced radio that you are responsible for. Any kid can see and hear this crap. My XM radio is a service I pay for and have installed for my use. I can block any channel I want. Show me how to do that on the public air waves...And don't tell me V chip. That's a joke. And public air radio has no V chip....